CHAPTER 876.

(House Bill 520)

AN ACT to repeal Section 145 of Article 48 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Inspections", sub-title "Eggs", and to enact in lieu thereof a new Section 145, providing for the compulsory marking of eggs for size and the compulsory markings of certain eggs for quality with allowances for tolerance.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 145 of Article 48 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Inspections", sub-title "Eggs", be and it is hereby repealed and that a new Section 145 be and it is hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to read as follows:

145. (a) No person shall sell or offer to sell, to the retailer or consumer, any eggs not properly designated in respect to size with such tolerances as are hereinafter allowed. Said designation shall be plainly and conspicuously shown in connection with said sale or offer for sale and may be shown on the container or in the offer to sell or by a sign placed on or near such eggs.

(b) The designation of size shall be one of the following: "Extra Large", "Large", "Medium", "Small", or "Unclassified".

(1) The term "Extra Large" shall mean eggs weighing at least twenty-six ounces per dozen or, when packed in thirty-dozen cases, eggs weighing at least forty-eight and one-half pounds per case; but no individual egg contained in such dozen or thirty-dozen case shall weigh at the rate per dozen less than twenty-five ounces.

(2) The term "Large" shall mean eggs weighing at least twenty-four ounces per dozen or, when packed in thirty-dozen cases, eggs weighing at least forty-five pounds per case; but no individual egg contained in such dozen or thirty-dozen case shall weigh at the rate per dozen less than twenty-three ounces.
